

Canadian Railway Bibliography (Version 2006 - #1)

<http://www.railwaymuseum.ab.ca/biblio.html>

This bibliography contains generally non-fiction books about Canadian Railways and their history. With few exceptions, it does not contain the large volume of pamphlets or brochures produced by the railway companies. For simplicity, this bibliography is divided into several categories.

Search for your title by first checking by one of the major group headings, then looking under 'general.'

- Titles beginning with "The" will be found under 'T.'
- The popular thin black & white BRMNA books are listed under BRMNA as a complete set.
- For purposes of counting, all volumes of a publication are treated as separate books.

WHERE CAN I READ OR BUY RAILWAY BOOKS?

- LIBRARIES: Public, University and College Libraries. Railway books will most commonly be found by searching the headings "railroads" and "transportation" in databases.
- BOOKSTORES: Often listed under the headings "transportation," "Canadiana," and "local interest." Generally, only the most recent railway books will be found at chain bookstores.
- USED BOOKSTORES: Finer used bookstores, e.g. antiquarian dealers, often have the best selection of these books. Be prepared to shop around for the best price.
- MUSEUM ARCHIVES: Provincial or regional museum archives, as well as archives at railway museums. Most railway museums have a collection of reference books. Sometimes these are organized as official archives, while some museums have turned their collection over to (or store them at) Provincial or regional archives. By contacting a member of one of these museums, you will often be able to be put in contact with museum members that have personal collections.
- The Alberta Railway Museum's collection is co-located at the City of Edmonton Archives, as the 'John Rechner Memorial Library.'
- The C. Robert Craig Memorial Library (a not-for-profit society), one of the largest public collections in Canada, is co-located at:
 - Ottawa City Archives
 - Main Branch -- Whitton Hall

2nd Floor, Sussex Pavilion
111 Sussex Blvd.
Ottawa, Ontario
Tel: 613-580-2424, ext. 13333 (or 3333?)
Open: Mon. to Fri. 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

- The inventory of the Craig Library can be examined on the web at: <http://www.ovar.ca/CraigLibrary>
- ON THE WEB: Some of the many railway-related web sites list books that are available for sale directly or from publishers.

RESEARCHERS: two previous works may assist your endeavors:

1. Bibliographical List of References to Canadian Railways 1829-1938; Grace S. Lewis, Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, 1938. (On file, University of Calgary library)
2. The Quill-and-Rail Catalogue: A Bibliographic Guide to Canadian Railroads; R.D. Tennant Jr., The Tennant Publication House (self-published), Halifax, NS, 1976. (On file, University of Calgary library)

We would appreciate your assistance with this list! If you can correct or complete existing information, or provide new information on Canadian railway books not on this list, please drop us an e-mail via the "Contact Us" link on this website. If possible, please include: title and subtitle, author, publisher, publisher's location, and date of publication. Thank you!

This is the most comprehensive, up-to-date list of Canadian railway books yet compiled. Still, it is not complete. Some voids lie in a number of areas, namely: railway engineering or business/finance, books that have very minor Canadian content, relatively unknown books on Canadian railways that were published overseas, and privately/personally published books, most of which are on regional railways or very specialized subjects. Some of these books have never been viewed personally. Therefore, a few may be listed in the wrong category. As well, any such bibliography is subjective, insofar as determining what is a 'railway book' as opposed to a history book with some railway content, or what constitutes a book versus a pamphlet. Any assistance that can be offered to the author in correcting or compiling a more complete list would be appreciated.
